HELCH

He's been an enigma, an unknown word on bridges and bypasses- HELCH has lived a nocturnal life in the city for years. This December, he finally steps out of this shadow, claiming full ownership of his unmistakable style and the visual language that has defined him across the city's concrete surface.

BSMT is proud to present 'NO HALF MEASURES', the first-ever exhibition by HELCH- marking the first time original artworks by the artist will be available to the public in a comprehensive solo show. For a figure whose reputation was built outside the system, this moment signals a rare crossing of worlds: from motorway walls to gallery walls.

Since 2018, HELCH's tag has dominated London's landscape and beyond- sprawling across viaducts, train lines and rooftops in unapologetic block caps, cementing his status as one of the UK's most recognisable and elusive graffiti writers.

'NO HALF MEASURES' pulls that same raw energy indoors, translating the adrenaline and attitude of the street into tangible form. Riding the tension between visibility and anonymity, individuality and recognition, this landmark exhibition will redefine our understanding of HELCH and his work.

Still anonymous. Still everywhere.

But for the first time- available.
